

There is/are, There isn't/aren't UCN/CN, Plural

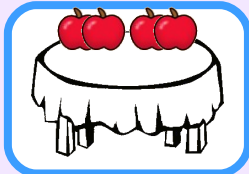

Name: _____
Date: _____

Look at the pictures and answer the questions completely using There is or There are.

How many color pencils are there in the pencil box?

There are five color pencils in the pencil box.

How many apples are there on the table?

How many dogs are there in the kennel?

How many keys are there in front of the box?

How many presents are there under the Christmas tree?

Complete the sentences using There is/are or There isn't/aren't and some or many.

1. My mother can't make a cake for dinner tonight, because _____ flour.

2. Only girls can come to my birthday party. _____ boys here.

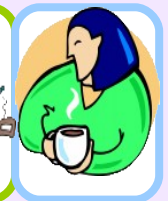

3. _____ oil in the wok. I think my sister wants to fry some chicken.

4. The boy can't buy any books, because _____ money in his wallet.

5. _____ trees in the park.

Look at the nouns in bold letters, then write CN for countable nouns or UCN for uncountable nouns.

1. I have a small turtle at home _____

2. It's very hot. I want to drink water _____

3. I don't have much money in my wallet _____

4. My uncle is very rich. He has many cars _____

5. My mother likes drinking tea _____

Read the following passage and answer the questions.

My Aunt's House

My aunt, Mary lives in Los Angeles, in the United States of America. She has a very large house downtown. There are many rooms in her house. She is married and has two children – one boy and one girl. Her son is Ricky and her daughter is Pamela. My aunt's bedroom is very big. There are one bed, one wardrobe, one television, and two lamps in her bedroom. Ricky and Pamela live in one big bedroom, too. Their bedroom is beside my aunt's bedroom. There are two beds, two wardrobes, two desks, and one television in their bedroom.

1. Where does Aunt Mary Live?

2. Are there many rooms in Aunt Mary's bedroom?

3. How many lamps are there in Aunt Mary's bedroom?

4. Where is Ricky and Pamela's bedroom?

5. How many televisions are there in Ricky and Pamela's bedroom?

